SKA-T was ska punk band from Germany and originally existed between 1997 and 2007. The band was the start of the careers of Longfingah (vocals Ska-T) and iLLBiLLY HiTEC (drums), that from 2008 on toured the world together with hundreds of shows and major festivals between Japan and Mexico.

The song “Fire” appeared on the very last album of Ska-T in 2005. The band was known by various compilations beyond Germanys borders as a musical pioneer and fun live act. They even made a show with the legendary Rockpalast TV show. Now in 2020, Ska-T is ready to reunite. As a first step the band makes the last two releases accessible on all digital platforms.
